OBSTACLE TO TRANSFER OF SALT RIVER PROJECT REMOVED

Phoenia, Ariz, Oct. 1.—For several weeks there has been a feeling of unexplines at the offices of the Salt River Valley Water Users' association over reports of difficulty in the transfer to the association project, on plans that were presented by the association attorney, Sarige J. H. Kibbey, now in Wash-inches association attorney, Sarige J. H. Kibbey, now in Wash-inches association attorney, Sarige J. H. Kibbey, now in Wash-inches assent machine agent, who

RECORD COTTON PRODUCER proposed to the association of the local prigation project, on plana that were presented by the association attorney, safe J. H. Kibbey, now in Washington.

It has been learned that this difficulty, which now has been removed. I annuary, is at the head of the offerings of the week the contacts for the week wholly with the contracts for the mee of slectific power from the project, sold mainly to the Inspiration Copper company of Mismit; the local electric every for the service corporation and a number of valley users. These meers have assented to a transfer of their contracts of the instructions of E. W. Hudden, cetton expert for the Southwestern Cotton company. Though hundreds of pickings are being brought in from Texas clear all legal troubles. So the mithal prosing of the reclamation service control is to be had decky or within a few days and hereafter admitted by the finding price has been raised to three cents.
